

HAIRSTYLING AND AESTHETICS

Hairstyling and aesthetics courses offer students an opportunity to work in a salon/spa environment and provide services for a diverse clientele. Students may focus on careers such as hairstylist, aesthetician, nail technician, or make-up artist. In a growing service economy, courses in hairstyling and aesthetics help prepare students for rewarding careers.

Students will gain hands-on experience using professional materials and equipment and practising current techniques. They will use professional terminology related to hairstyling and aesthetics, acquire transferable problem-solving skills, and learn about the Essential Skills and work habits that are important for success in these fields. At the same time, they will expand their communication and interpersonal skills as they interact with their peers and clients.

The list of approved emphasis areas for hairstyling and aesthetics can be found at www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/curriculum/secondary/teched.html.

- Courses in technological education are suitable for use in cooperative education programs and in connection with other forms of experiential learning as well as in programs such as the Specialist High Skills Major (SHSM). For more information, see pages 43–44 of this document.
- For policy guidelines pertaining to multiple-credit courses and emphasis courses, see pages 17–18 of this document.

Hairstyling and Aesthetics, Grade 11

Workplace Preparation

TXJ3E

This course enables students to develop knowledge and skills in cosmetology and offers a variety of applications that will equip students to provide services for a diverse clientele. Students will identify trends in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry, learn about related health and safety laws, and expand their communication and interpersonal skills through interactions with peers and clients. Students will also consider environmental and societal issues related to the industry, and will acquire a more detailed knowledge of apprenticeships and direct-entry work positions.

Prerequisite: None

A. HAIRSTYLING AND AESTHETICS FUNDAMENTALS

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of this course, students will:

- A1. demonstrate an understanding of the physiology of hair, skin, and nails;
- A2. demonstrate an understanding of issues related to chemical components found in hairstyling and aesthetics products;
- A3. demonstrate an understanding of business practices and strategies used in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

A1. The Physiology of Hair, Skin, and Nails

By the end of this course, students will:

- A1.1 describe the physiological properties of hair, skin, and nails (e.g., density, elasticity, porosity, texture, cycles of growth);
- A1.2 use correct terminology to discuss the properties of hair, skin, and nails (e.g., hair: anagen, telogen, catagen; skin: sebum, melanin, dermatology, epidermis; nails: onyx, keratin).

A2. Chemical Components and Related Issues

By the end of this course, students will:

- A2.1 explain the role of pH values in hair care, skin care, and nail care products (e.g., hair products: shampoo, conditioners, chemical relaxers, permanent wave solutions, peroxide, neutralizers; skin products: moisturizers, cleansing creams, toners; nail products: acrylic overlays, UV gels, liquid nail wraps, primers);
- A2.2 identify common chemical ingredients that may trigger allergic reactions and list products that do and do not contain the ingredients (e.g., organic/natural products, synthetic compounds, hypoallergenic cosmetics).

A3. Business Practices and Strategies

By the end of this course, students will:

- A3.1 identify and describe behaviours, attitudes, and skills that are important for successful employment in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry (e.g., commitment to the job and to a high standard of performance, professional appearance and dress, task management skills, interpersonal skills, respect for confidentiality, commitment to antidiscriminatory practices, conflict-resolution skills);

- A3.2 use a variety of teamwork and interpersonal skills to communicate and interact successfully with clients and co-workers (e.g., understand and accommodate cultural differences in body language and communication style – for instance, many First Nations people show respect by not looking into the eyes of the person they are speaking to);
- A3.3 identify effective advertising and management strategies (e.g., appeal to new client groups, including diverse populations) and new products, tools, and equipment that can be used to support and enhance salon/spa operations;
- A3.4 identify a range of visual display techniques that are used in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry to attract clients (e.g., window/display showcases, holiday themes and promotions) and compare their effectiveness in different retail and service contexts;
- A3.5 apply literacy skills (e.g., to read manufacturers' instructions, product ingredients and directions) and mathematical skills (e.g., to measure volume and/or proportions) to ensure the safe and appropriate use of hairstyling and aesthetics techniques, tools, and products;
- A3.6 explain the purpose and importance of a client consultation form and waiver (e.g., name, address, allergies, current products, client wishes, client history).

B. HAIRSTYLING AND AESTHETICS SKILLS

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of this course, students will:

- B1. perform a variety of salon/spa services that meet industry standards, using appropriate materials, techniques, and equipment safely and correctly;
- B2. create designs for a variety of hairstyling and aesthetics purposes and contexts;
- B3. apply methods for identifying, analysing, and meeting the needs of a diverse clientele.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

B1. Performing Salon/Spa Services

By the end of this course, students will:

- B1.1 select and use appropriate materials, tools, and products to perform professional salon/spa services (e.g., hair colouring, hair cutting, hairstyling, chemical texturizing, make-up applications, nail care and skin care treatments);
- B1.2 demonstrate a working knowledge of products, techniques, and tools used to perform hairstyling and aesthetics services (e.g., products: gel, pomade, mousse, wax, hairspray, lightener, neutralizer, milk cleanser, toner, peel, serum, creams, oils; techniques: for cutting, colouring, and styling hair; tools: thermal irons, hair brushes/combs, scissors, texture shears, razors, clippers, high-frequency machines, nail files, cuticle pushers, nail buffers, comedone extractors);
- B1.3 perform an in-depth hair, scalp, and product analysis to predict the results that can be expected from chemical services (e.g., consult with client; perform strand test and patch test; study product information and application instructions to assess product appropriateness and effects);
- B1.4 perform hairstyling and aesthetics services (e.g., hair cutting, hairstyling, make-up, nail care, skin care) to meet the needs of individuals and groups in school and community contexts (e.g., special event occasions, musicals, plays, productions, fashion shows, nursing homes, hospitals).

B2. Creating Designs

By the end of this course, students will:

- B2.1 use knowledge of elements of design (e.g., space, line, texture) and design principles (e.g., scale, rhythm, contrast) to plan hairstyling and aesthetics strategies;
- B2.2 use colour theory principles and tools (e.g., “warm” and “cool” shades, complementary colours, colour wheel) to customize hairstyling and aesthetics services to meet individual clients’ needs (e.g., to develop appropriate colour formulations and/or make-up selections);
- B2.3 incorporate hairstyling and aesthetics fashion trends (e.g., cutting, styling, and colouring patterns; make-up styles; nail art) and culturally based styles/products (e.g., ethnic styles, henna) into their designs;
- B2.4 produce creative designs for a variety of salon/spa purposes and contexts (e.g., styles for competitions and fashion shows; seasonal, fantasy, bridal/prom, and men’s styles);
- B2.5 demonstrate an understanding of make-up design and application approaches and techniques appropriate to a variety of purposes and/or contexts (e.g., special occasion, glamour, workplace-appropriate, culturally specific, fantasy, camouflage, classic make-up; make-up to simulate the “look” of various historical periods).

B3. Meeting the Needs of Clients

By the end of this course, students will:

- B3.1 demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively with the client, using active listening techniques (e.g., asking questions to clarify client's expressed wishes; not interrupting while client is speaking; being attuned to culturally distinct communication styles);
- B3.2 develop and analyse a profile of a client (e.g., condition of scalp, hair, skin, and nails; skin type; facial shape; body type) in order to recommend appropriate hairstyling and aesthetics services;
- B3.3 use organizational record-keeping skills to keep track of information about clients and business operations (e.g., release statements, client record cards, appointments, employee work schedules).

C. INDUSTRY PRACTICES, THE ENVIRONMENT, AND SOCIETY

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of this course, students will:

- C1. describe the environmental impact of practices and products in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry, and identify safe practices and environmentally friendly solutions to problems;
- C2. explain why hairstyling and aesthetics services are important to society, and identify ways in which social and cultural factors affect the industry.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

C1. Industry Practices and the Environment

By the end of this course, students will:

- C1.1 identify and explain environmental and health issues related to various products used in the hairstyling and aesthetics industry (e.g., the need for biodegradable products and refillable containers; the need for warnings/controls for carcinogenic/toxic ingredients; the need for proper ventilation in salons/spas);
- C1.2 describe and apply practices for the recycling and responsible disposal of waste from salon/spa operations (e.g., routines to reduce, reuse, and recycle; techniques for safe handling), and identify some sustainable purchasing practices for the hairstyling and aesthetics industry (e.g., purchasing products available in refillable containers, products with natural ingredients, non-toxic cleaning products, energy-saving products).

C2. Industry Practices and Society

By the end of this course, students will:

- C2.1 describe the role that the hairstyling and aesthetics industry plays in increasing people's self-esteem and well-being (e.g., fostering a positive body image, good personal grooming and hygiene, and self-confidence; reducing stress; identifying health issues) at the various life stages (e.g., child, preteen, teenager, young/middle-aged adult, senior);
- C2.2 describe how the hairstyling and aesthetics industry responds to various social issues and concerns (e.g., the use of animal testing in product development; the use of natural versus synthetic ingredients in product development; demand for scent-free and hypoallergenic products; cultural protocols, such as the Anishinaabe practice of collecting cut hair to dispose of in a culturally acceptable way);
- C2.3 identify culturally linked fashion preferences or restrictions in hairstyling and aesthetics (e.g., related to hair length and/or visibility, eyebrow styles, make-up styles, hair colour, hair removal, henna, hair extensions).

D. PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE AND CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of this course, students will:

- D1. apply health and safety standards related to the use of hairstyling and aesthetics equipment, materials, and techniques and the maintenance of a safe work environment;
